CATTLE SECTION RULES

1. No entry will be accepted unless the entry form is properly completed by and signed by the Exhibitor or his Agent and the necessary fees must accompany the entry.
2. Exhibitors are responsible for the correctness of their entries and should an Exhibitor fail to prove the correctness of any entry when requested to do so, the entry in question may be disqualified and any award made to such an entry cancelled. An Exhibitor who knowingly signs an incorrect entry form may be disqualified from entering future Shows of the Society.
3. An Exhibitor may withdraw a duly accepted entry and substitute another animal in the same class, up to seven days before the Show. Any substitution after this time may incur a full entry fee.
4. Entries received later than 1st July 2024 will not appear in the Catalogue and will incur a £5.00 surcharge per Exhibitor.
5. All cattle may compete in as many classes as they are eligible for, on payment of a separate fee for each entry.
6. All Bulls above one year must be secured by a ring in the nose, with a chain or leading staff attached, with TWO handlers.
7. All entries must be halter led in the ring and double-tied in the lines.
8. In Milk' classes will be milked at the respective Breed Judge's discretion.
9. Fodder cannot be supplied by the Society.
10. The Society will arrange milking facilities, but not units.
11. No 'Nomination Entries' will be accepted.
- 12. All Perpetual Trophies won in the forthcoming show are to be returned to the Cattle Section Secretary by 1st JULY 2024. It is the responsibility of the winner to ensure that the trophies are correctly covered under personal insurance whilst in their care.
13. The Cattle Committee reserve the right to reject or cancel any entry or entries if they deem it fit to do so, and the right to cancel or amalgamate any class/es. In the case of cancellation, fees will be refunded.
14. Any person in the judgement of the Cattle Committee, who has broken any of the Society's rules or has been guilty of dishonest or unfair conduct in connection with the Show in question or of any previous show of the Society may be excluded from exhibiting.
15. All animals sent for exhibition may be inspected by the Society's Hon Veterinary Officer, who is authorised to exclude any animal affected by any complaint or disease likely to prove dangerous to other animals, furnishing a certificate thereof to the person in charge of the animal.
16. The Society may require any exhibitor to pay a sum not exceeding £25 as and for liquidated damages if any animal which such an Exhibitor sends for exhibition is, in the opinion of the Society's Hon Veterinary Officer, affected by any contagious or infectious disease or with any form of complaint or disease likely to prove dangerous to other animals.
17. All Animals must be Accredited.
18. The Judges' decision will be final.

19. Any cases of dispute will be referred to the Chairman and two other members of the Cattle Committee and their decision shall be final.
20. Any Exhibitor wishing to enter a protest must do so in writing to the Secretary of the Cattle Section, accompanied by a deposit of FIVE POUNDS. If on investigation the protest is not sustained the deposit may be forfeited to the funds of the Committee. In the case of any protest whereby any Prize Animal becomes disqualified, the winner of the next succeeding prize in that class shall take the prize awarded to the disqualified animal then the lowest prize will go to the reserve number. No protests can be registered after the conclusion of the Show.
21. All persons in charge of exhibits must be in attendance on the animals in their charge throughout the day of the Show and will be subject to the direction of the Society's Officials. They will parade or exhibit the animals in their charge at such times as may be required.
22. No one will be allowed in the Judging Rings whilst the animals are being judged except Officials of the Society and those in charge of animals being exhibited.
23. No placards offering animals for sale or any other notice shall be displayed in any part of the Show Yard without the written permission of the Hon Secretary being obtained.
24. Stewards, Judges and Exhibitors will be required to follow current Show Guidelines as published by DEFRA.
25. The Camborne Show Committee will not be liable for loss, damage or injury to any persons or property which may occur on the Show Ground or adjacent grounds used in connection with the Show.
